

Catherine Mundy, Editor

Arcadia

WOMEN

SECTION PAGE

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 28, 1968

Club Weaves Magic Party

The Magic Carpet carried a jolly crowd to the dinner dance at the Harry Lauber home on Oakwood Drive in Arcadia last Saturday night. And their attendance wove a generous portion of the new foyer carpeting for the Woman's Club of Arcadia.

The hosts were chairmen of the event — Floretta in black silk Hong Kong dress with front diagonal pattern in white, and Harry in red gold tassel fez and vest.

They were assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Gillman (Charlene's gold trousers covered by a gay flowered overdress), who were in charge of the dinner, most of which was furnished by contributions of guests, particularly Mr. and Mrs. J. Walter Genuit.

Additional committee members included Mrs. Charles L. Neuberg, publicity; Mrs. Robert A. Gray and Mrs. Robert Smiley, reservations.

Serving during the libation social hour were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Miller (Martha in a gold lame trouser suit), assisted by Larry Lauber and Rick Neilson.

The hors d'oeuvres table was covered with a pink cloth and centered with a bowl of scarlet and deep violet asters and Genie hurricane lamps. The same color theme was carried out to the pool annex dining area where more lamps centered the tables, enhanced by floodlights.

Mrs. Eugene C. Rothenberger, club president, was gowned in a pink silk suit with beaded Nehru collar. She and Mr. Rothenberger had as their guests Mr. and Mrs. John Slavin.

Other guests attending were Messrs. and Mmes. Paul M. Bender, Clarence L. Browning, James E. Brown, Lloyd L. Call, John Clymer, Henry L. Dietze, Michael Erickson, Alby R. Foy, Lawrence A. Frey, Evarts H. Goodrich, Charles F. Ganther, Herbert W. Glidden, Carl Jennings, Jean D. Lucas, Emlus M. Ely (both in Arabic costume), and The Ernest J. Fuersts (Marybeth in scarlet and purple Arabian robe and Enrie complementing her in a dark chartreuse Nehru suit complete with necklace and medallion.)

Others there were the Jack B. Mallans, Paul Manoians, Edward McCloskeys, William S. Orrs, Joseph C. Parnhams, William C. Parquette Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Regan, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Russell, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas G. Schinke, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert R. Starkenburg, (both in Arabic costume, Dorothy's flowing coat gown finished with Parisian border trim); Mr. and Mrs. Desmond K. Swager, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Stanley, Mr. and Mrs. Lyman G. Vollintine.

More were Mrs. L. Leroy Blodgett, Mrs. John J. Doyle, Mrs. Henrietta K. Loeffler, Mrs. Nellie L. Foto, Mrs. Lillian Reaney, Mrs. Daniel J. Slattery.